Play Description:
The Mount Home for Retired Theatricals is an unusual place – more like a country house hotel than a home for the elderly and the manageress positively encourages residents to carry on working as long as they can. So when Walter Neville (small part veteran of films) arrives, he is overjoyed to find some of his best friends in residence. All is well until the serial womanizer ex-husband of three of the residents go missing – apparently on the run from Russian gangsters. The ladies decide that "He who pays the bills" must be rescued – but how to go about it? What follows is a truly daft journey into the world of eccentric luvvies that provides some of the best comic roles for senior actors you are ever likely to come across!

Characters according to the script:
Ann Thompson-admin of the retirement home, in her 40's
Walter Neville- retired bit part actor, military bearing, is very brisk and in his 70's
Phyllida Sullivan-retired actor, first ex wife of Edmund. Clever and the leader of the women. In her 70's
Jules Sullivan-retired actor, second ex-wife of Edmund. A bit Bohemian and occasionally flirtatious in her 60's
Rebecca Sullivan-retired actor, third ex-wife of Edmund. Slightly scatterbrained, in her 60's
Marcia- housekeeper. Very chatty and obsessed with the actors. Age 30-40
Danny Stiller-Wealthy, retired actor. Very neurotic and timid. Used to be very confident and arrogant. In his 60s
Mike Molinsky-vicious, unhinged but Comical Russian gangster. Sharp dresser carries a scalpel. 30+
Edmund Sullivan-still appearing in major movies. Very confident and charming as has a long history of seduction and adultery. Age 70
Dmitri- Non-speaking part. Large, menacing bodyguard. Any age
Irina-glamorous but menacing Russian women of an uncertain age

The read through will happen after casting is in place. Rehearsal schedule will typically be Sundays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays at 7 pm beginning on Dec 6, with some adjustments due to other theatre bookings or if extra rehearsals are needed or holidays fall on those nights, but we will decide together. The week leading up to opening night will be all week with Thursday as a dark day.
